

Daniel C. Brent to Thomas Jefferson, June 7, 1802, from Thomas Jefferson and the National Capital. Edited by Saul K. Padover.

Daniel Brent to Jefferson

June 7th 1802

Sir /

Agreeable to your desire, I have spoken to mr. Hadfield to furnish a plan for the Jail. this he has promised to do, which when done shall be sent in to you—. I transmit herewith several plans which have been handed to me & from which some useful hint may perhaps be taken—. With sentiments of the highest respect I am Sir yr Obt Servt.

Daniel C. Brent

[Ms., Jefferson Papers, Library of Congress.]